S. C. Precancel Club Session Enjoyed Here

The Southern California Precancel club held its April meeting last Friday evening in the Public Library here. There were approximately 45 members and visitors present, coming from as far as Ventura, Oxnard, Santa Ana and Alhambra, as well as from Los Angeles, Inglewood, Compton, Long Beach and San Pedro.

Postmaster Earl Conner was present and welcomed the Precancel club to Torrance in a humorous talk in which he said that while he had saved stamps himself, he was not very familiar with the "precancel bug." He requested advice on how to hold onto the stamps after they were acquired, saying that every time he got some good stamps someone managed to talk him out of them.

It was a very enthusiastic meeting and the evening passed so quickly that it was nearly midnight before the last of the members went home.

Fern Avenue Planning Playground PARENTS ASKED TO COOPERATE

An afternoon, Saturday and vacation playground will be opened at Fern avenue school if it is the wish of parents of the community, according to Mrs. Oda Vans, principal, who sent the following notice to all friends of the school this week: "We are anxious to keep the boys and girls off the streets and have them play in protected areas. However, we must know that enough children will use the playground to make it worthwhile to provide supervision and the necessary equipment. The playground will open after school hours only (from 3 to 5) until we see that it is going to be used by the children of the community. If there is a real need for Saturday playground it will be opened in a few weeks. The same will be true regarding the summer playground. If it opens it will be because it is well attended in the meantime.

The summer program would include craft clubs, dramatics, story hours and folk dancing as well as a variety of game activities. You will receive a notice within a few days at the exact date on which the after-school program will open."

Hit-Runner Who Smashed Into Two Cars Fined

Sought for questioning in regard to damages to two parked cars by a machine registered under his name, James Shaffer, 30, local steel worker, walked into the police station here last Friday and was promptly charged with hit-and-run.

Taken before City Judge Robert Lessing, Shaffer pleaded guilty and was fined $50 or 25 days in jail. He paid $25 on account and promised to pay the balance in a few days. Shaffer was then released.

His companion on an asserted wild ride thru the business district when the double side-swipe occurred April 12, Aubrey Thomas, of 813 Portola avenue, convinced police that he was only an "innocent occupant" of Shaffer's car on the erratic ride. No charge was placed against Thomas.

Australia Mines Gold
CANBERRA (U.P.)—Statistics just completed show that Australia's gold mines produced $40,000,000 worth of gold in 1936 as against $32,500,000 in 1935.

Plan Held Vital

"This will be the problem of pertinacity and ingenuity. . . . You should stimulate community enterprises to induce workers who live out of town to come back here evenings and eventually to live here, buy or build homes of their own. You should devise pointed, striking material for the All-Year club's guide books, make a study of good pictures and get them circulating."

"Who's to pay for all this? Well, lay out a sane, progressive system of advertising and exploiting Torrance, plan a small but consistent annual expenditure and then you can legally and justifiably levy a tax for the promotion of the city. But have a coherent formula to get Torrance on the map, in the guide books and national publications and eventually it will pay great dividends in pay-rolls and people."

Clothesline - Row Costly

DENVER (U.P.)—A dispute over a clothesline cost two women $50 in Justice of the Peace court. The women pleaded guilty to charges of assault and battery originating from an argument with a third woman as to whose turn it was to use the clothesline.

Publicist Advises Plan for City Exploitation

the nation's manufacturing. At the present time only six percent is being realized here. Lyman believes Southern California can raise industrial production four percent and still be "occupying merely our just position in regard to export trade."

Population will increase tremendously in Southern California during the next decade principally, Lyman declared, because "this region is the greatest poor-man's country in the world—in no other place can a poor man enjoy himself so thoroughly." However, this has already been a boon to California because the speaker pointed out there is not a single available acre lacking a crop this year in the major farming areas. The reason: Farmers from the "dust bowl" have migrated here in great numbers and have taken up lands.

Get On the Map

Cheap abundant power, natural gas and climate that is an industrial asset and keeps workers contented and efficient are the major factors for Southern California's bid for attention. New alloys and new alloy steels are being developed here.

"Torrance can and should get its share of this industrial increase providing that industrial freedom—the open shop—is maintained," Lyman, who for the past 20 years has been chief of advertising for the Security First National Bank of Los Angeles, said. "The present effort of unions to dominate industry in the United States and in particular the growth of vertical (C. I. O.) unions is likely to seriously interfere with our present advantage as a producing center."

"There is a future in Southern California, however, no matter what happens. What can Torrance do about it?" he questioned and then proceeded to give his audience some pointers on proper exploitation. These were: Because Torrance is "not on any road to anywhere you've got to get more strongly on the map by publicity, by utilizing every opportunity to get the name of Torrance before the people here and in the east."

Plan Held Vital

ANSWERS:

The words of "Drink to Me Only With Thine Eyes," were written by the great English dramatist, Ben Jonson. The name of the poem was "To Celia." The composer of the music remains unknown.

No, dogies are not "doggies!"

They are yearling steers.

The first permanent newspaper to be established in America

was the Boston News Letter, which appeared in 1704. At the beginning of the Revolutionary war, all of the newspapers printed in the colonies combined only had a circulation of about 5,000.

ADIOS

Who gave us nobler loves and nobler cares—
The poets who on earth have made us heirs
Of truth and pure delight, by heavenly lays."

NARBONNE NEWSHAWKS GOING TO CONVENTION

DETOUR

By BETSY BYRNES

"Drink to me only with thine eyes,
And I will pledge with mine,
Or leave a kiss within the cup,
And I'll not ask for wine;
The first that from the soul doth rise
Doth ask a drink of mine;
But might I of Jove's nectar sup
I would not change for thine."

QUESTIONS:

We heard the lovely old song, "Drink to Me Only With Thine Eyes," again last night. Who wrote the words?
Something else we hear very often, especially via radio, is the plea to "Git along, little doggies!" Just what are doggies? What was the first permanent newspaper to be established in America? (Wonder how many new newspaper men know the answer?)
